ANOTHER LIFT TO THE FUND.

READERS OF THE SUN GIFE $1,637 MORE TO BELP IRELAND'S BAT-TLE FOR HOME RULE.

A Big Collection Made at Haverstraw After J. M. Wall's Patriotic Speech-Yonkers Gives a Round Sum, too, and Promises More-The Sun Fund Reaching Toward the $15,000 Mark - The Gallant Sixty. ninth Getting to Work-Preparations for the Big Meeting of the Central Labor Union on July 5-Entertainments to be

The necessity of contributing money right off to belp the battle waging across the sea to establish an Irish Parliament in Dublin town is now recognized by all who have the welfare of the Irish cause at heart. The home rule readers of THE SUN continue to pour in money to show their loyalty to the glorious cause and their hope that Ireland may secure her legislative freedom in the impending struggle at the British polls. Yesterday the contributions to THE SUN fund surpassed the record of any previous day since THE SUN opened its columns to eccive the contributions of American sympathizers in Irish home rule. Over $1,600 added to the fund, a sum which celipsed the fine total of hast Tuesday, when over $1,000 came into the office to aid the men who are to fight for Erin's independence. The earliest contribution of the day was also the best. It was a check for $1,062.64, the handsomest single contribution yet added to THE SUN fund. The Rev. Father Baxter, the good paster of St. Peter's parish at Haverstraw. N. Y. sent it to the editor. It represented the home rule purse raised at the great mass meeting at the Haverstraw Rink on Monday night under the direction of the Ancient Order of Hibernians of the town. The money was subscribed after J. M. Wall, who was a fellow prisoner with Paraell in Kilmainham jail, had delivered a ringing home rule address. The size of the check proves that Father Baxter was right when he described it happily as "the most effective home rule speech he had ever listened to." Father Baxter furnished the Sun yesterday with additional interesting particulars of the meeting, which was the largest mass meeting ever held in Haverstraw.

Mr. John Fahey called the meeting to order at 8% P. M. County Judge George W. Welant was unanimously chosen Chairman, and Lawyer Charles C. Suffren Secretary. Judge Weiant made a stirring speech, and the Rev. Dr. Mclihenney spoke elequently. Lecturer Wall's appeal for aid for the election of members to support Gladstone's home rule fight followed. Mr. Wall spoke for an hour and a half. Patriotic resolutions were passed, and letters were rend from the Hon. George Dickey. Adam Lilburn, and Lawyers Irving Brown and Frank P. Demarest. These were the patriotic listeners

Bids for Making the Conduits Wanted. Roswell P. Flower of the Underground Wire ommission said yesterday that the Commissioners would be gind to receive proposals for the construction of conduits for the wires from any responsible con-tractors. The Commission is without funds to pay the tractors. The Commission is without funds to pay the constructors of the conduit, but, Mr. Flower said, that need not deter people from bidding for the privilege of constructing it. They would be paid from funds accruing from the rental of the conduit to the commission using it, said rental not to excree the cost of maintaining the wires overhead. The encincers expect to have everything in readiness by Aug. 12 to proceed with the building of the conduit. The probabilities are that the work of putting the wires underground will be begun before the end of the summer.

Harry Fleet Pulls on the Track.

Many members of the Gentlemen's Driving Hilb were at Plestwood yesterday to see mile heats rotted, best two in three, in harness, between Mr. N. Hausman's br. g. Harry Pleet, driven by John Murphy, and Mr. W. H. Hamilton's b. m. Western Belle, driven by Jerome Whelpley. The horses were promptly on at first, on account of the excited condition of Harry Fleet. They went away at last with Harry Fleet about two lengths ahead. Western Belie soon got up to him, but Harry Fleet, as he went around the turn, wavered, and finally stopped short and fell heavily against the fence. The sulay was turned over, but not before Murphy had a chance to jump on the ground and selze the horse's head. It was found that the animal had choked himself and burst a small blood vessel. This, of course, ended the trial race.

THE GOVERNMENT'S WHEELS

ARNAPOR EDMUNDS PROPOSES TO LET . THEM STOP FOR A WHILE,

The Senate Pinnity Decides to Extend the Time for Fifteen Bays. The Sandary Civil Appropriations Bill Passed, with No Pre-vision for Unveiling the Statue of Liberty. WARRINGTON, July 1 .- Mr. Allison called up in the Senate to-day the House joint resolution extending appropriations for ten days, and Mr. Edmunds called attention to this way of doing business and to the present state of affairs. For several years past appropriation bills were not sent to the Senate in time to have them properly considered; and when they came to the President he had no time to examine them, but had either to sign them blindly or to veto them blindly. If Congress could not better administer the public business in the most important of its features (the proper control of the public money), it was not deserving the onfidence of the people. If they could not bring themselves into better fashions about this business he should rather let the wheels of confidence of the people. If they could not bring themselves into better fashions about this business he should rather let the wheels of Government stop by refusing to pass this joint resolution. The passing of such resolutions was avery confusing and mischievous practice. After further discussion the joint resolution was amended by extending the time to fifteen days, and was then passed.

The Senate resumed the consideration of the Legislative Appropriation bill, and a long discussion took place over the proposition of the Committee on Appropriations to atrike out the paragraph for the office work connected with the publication of the Records of the Resoliton, it being obsarged that these records were not edited with impartiality, and were not confined to the records of the war period. Finally the paragraph was retained, but with a proviso treatricting the publication to contemporaneous events of the war, and another proviso treatricting the publication of the evidence in the Porter case and the report thereon of Judge Advocate-General Holt.

The Speaker laid before the House a message from the Senate announcing that that body had passed, over the President's voto, the bill to quiet the title of settlers on the Des Moines River lands. Mr. Oates of Alabama moved, as the voto was based on legal grounde, to refer the bill and message to the Committee on the Judiciary. This motion was lost, and on the passage of the bill notwithstanding the objections of the President, the bill was lost for want of the constitutional two-thirds vots.

The House sitting in Committee of the Whole (Mr. Reagan of Texas in the chair) on the Sundry Civil Appropriation bill, Mr. Hiscock of New York characterized the appropriations which had been insisted upon by the Republican Senate The gentleman from New York might rely upon it that this pretence of economy could have no other result than to swell the deficiencies which must be provided for next year.

Mr. Randall of Pennsylvania asld that of the deficiency for the present year School statue amendment, which was rejected—yeas 103, nays 106.

Notwithstanding the adverse action of the House, the Bartholdi appropriation is not necessarily rejected linsily. The Senate Appropriations Committee has before it the same estimates furnished to the House, and will insert the appropriation in the Sundry Civil bill when it comes over from the House. The item will there have a chance with the conference committees.

The bill was then passed, and the House adjourned.

THURSDAY, July 1. Influenced by London quotations, the stock market opened fractionally higher. The early transactions were at Improving figures excepting for Oregon and Transcontinental and Louisville and Nashville, both of which were heavily sold. The former recovered in the later dealings, but the last named was heavy to the close. The action of these two stocks held the market somewhat in check, but the general tendency was strongly upward, and at the close most of the leading stocks showed material gains. The coal leading stocks showed material gains. The coal stocks were the most conspicuous exception. The Granger shares really led the market, with Erie, Lake Shore. Western Union, and Union Pacific closely following them. The volume of the trading also showed a good deal of improvement, and there were indications that the Chicago interests were more active. There were no special developments affecting values. The closing was firm at slight recessions from the best prices.
